Communication skills

As a private English teacher, I have taught to people of all ages. This has allowed me to develop the necessary skills to properly communicate with whomever I may have before me.

Job-related skills

I have been an English tutor ever since I got my high school degree in 2009. During a cultural exchange with Chinese students, organised by my university, I also had the chance to teach Italian, using both English and Chinese (Mandarin).

Thanks to my experience as a production assistant for the Umbria Jazz festival, I have travelled the world and helped organise many concerts and events, in particular in China.
